

Best People Practices from Best Companies 2010

A Best Practices Report published by Great Place to Work® Institute, Canada.

Has your organization wondered what sets the Best Companies to Work For apart from the competition?

Great Place to Work® Institute has been identifying and studying great workplaces for more than 15 years. We understand that a strong workplace culture, trustworthy relationships, as well as integrated programs and practices that reinforce that culture, provide organizations with a solid foundation on which to build a great workplace.

The Great Place to Work® Institute Best Practices from the Best Companies Report will introduce you to outstanding cultural practices from the Best Workplaces in Canada.

Featuring over 200 distinctive Best People Practices categorized according to the 9 Cultural Practice Areas identified by the Institute as essential to creating a great workplace, the Best Practices from Best Companies report offers you a framework for thinking about your workplace culture and how to create or innovate strong people practices within your own organization.
