

Save the Date - European Great Place to Work® Conference in Austria

Great Place to Work® invites you to join an international conference in Baden on May 20th, 2009.

“Crisis? Challenge? Change? The power of trust in managing difficult times.” is the promising title of the Great Place to Work® Conference 2009 that will take place in May this year. The program aims at giving hands-on practice examples how the Best Companies to Work lead their people in uncertain and difficult times, how they communicate and how they manage lay-offs when facing them.

Key-Note-Speakers from the Best Workplaces in Europe will get you an insider's perspective on what defines a great workplace, the business benefits associated with a high-trust work environment and the relationship between great workplaces and financial performance. Besides you will have the chance to connect to an inspirational group of other HR managers, CEOs and senior executives from across Europe.

Great Place to Work® Executive Dinner

On May 19th 2009, Robert Levering, the co-founder of Great Place to Work®, invites the CEO's of the “Best Workplaces in Europe 2009” to the exclusive Great Place to Work® Executive Dinner at Do&Co in the Congress Casino Baden. This event offers a high-level networking opportunity and is the start of the European Event Series 2009. The CEO's of the Best Workplaces in Europe, national and international media partners, the Key-Note-Speakers of the conference as well as our sponsors will be present.

European Great Place to Work® Award Events

The following day in the evening the Great Place to Work® Award Ceremony will honour the “100 Best Workplaces in Europe 2009” taking place at the City Theatre of Baden. CEO's, Top-Executives and HR-Managers of the Best Companies to Work for in Europe of this year, our media partners, sponsors and Key-Note-Speakers will join us for this special event.

We are looking forward to spend an exciting day and evening with you in Baden!
